

"FOR THE CHILDREN OF THIS WORLD ARE IN THEIR GENERATION WISER THAN THE CHILDREN OF LIGHT"

- | | | |
|------------------------|-------|-------------------------|
| 01. A certain rich man | _____ | A. I am ashamed |
| 02. The same was | _____ | B. Of thy stewardship |
| 03. He had wasted | _____ | C. Had a steward |
| 04. How is it that | _____ | D. Within himself |
| 05. Give an account | _____ | E. His goods |
| 06. Thou mayest be | _____ | F. Dig |
| 07. The steward said | _____ | G. Accused unto him |
| 08. I cannot | _____ | H. Me into their houses |
| 09. To beg | _____ | I. I hear this of thee |
| 10. They may receive | _____ | J. No longer steward |

TRUE/FALSE

01. _____ A steward called every one of his lord's debtors.
02. _____ An unjust steward was not concerned about what debtors owed his lord.
03. _____ One debtor owed a hundred measures of oil.
04. _____ A debtor owed a hundred measures of wheat.
05. _____ The debtor who owed measures of wheat was told to pay two score.

SHORT ANSWER

01. What did the Lord do about the unjust steward?
02. Who is wiser than the children of light?
03. Why is one to have friends of the mammon of unrighteousness?
04. Who is faithful also in much?
05. Who is unjust in much?
06. What is necessary before being trusted with true riches?
07. Why would a person not be given his or her own?
08. What does one do about the other when there is love for one?
09. When someone holds to one, what is done with the other?
10. Whom can one not serve?

Think Piece: What lessons are learned about being wise?